The Defendant and I no longer live together. We separated on (date):  We last lived together in (county and state):  The Defendant and I have no children from this marriage under the age of 19, and the Wife is not pregnant.  The Defendant and I have already divided our personal property (automobiles, furniture, clothing, bank accounts, etc.) and do not need a court order to divide our property.  The Defendant and I do not own any real estate together, such as a house or land.  The Defendant and I do not have any joint debts that need to be divided by the court.  The Defendant and I can no longer get along nor live together. We argue and cannot get along.  The marriage is broken down and cannot be fixed. It is not in our best interests to keep trying to fix it.  I ask the Court to (check all that apply):  a. □ Approve this Divorce Complaint, which would end my marriage forever.  b. □ Order the Defendant to pay all court costs.  c. □ Give me back my former name (list former name here):  I also ask the Court to make any other orders I may be entitled to.
